

A Primer for Seminar Speakers

From the website:

"Seminars seek to encourage the people of Advent as we share this pilgrimage called "The Christian Life." It's not the pulpit, and certainly not a soap box, but a forum where we can learn, ask questions, and experience kinship with one another."

- Deacon Jeremiah welcomes dialogue as you prepare your seminar. He is happy to help to field questions en route and/or brainstorm.
- Please send your presentation to Deacon Jeremiah for review the Friday before you plan to present.
- Seminars run forty minutes with an additional ten minutes for audience questions and dialogue.
- Seminars begin at 10:00am. Please arrive no later than 9:30am to setup your presentation and to technology troubleshoot. Our projector can accommodate HDMI and USB connections. Please let Deacon Jeremiah know if you need an additional input and/or cable.
- Children often attend seminars at The Canterbury House with their parents. Please keep your stories, anecdotes, language, and Power Point slides G-rated. Descriptions / depictions of sexual violence, use of profanity, and/or "off color" anecdotes are strongly discouraged.

Thank you for being one of Auden's "ironic points of light" here at Advent. Your service to our parish is greatly appreciated.
